THE USA PATRIOT ACT

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal Law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth and other information that will allow us to identify you. You may also be asked to show other identifying documentation.

Bolded fields must be completed and will be verified as required by the Patriot Act. If bolded fields are not completed, this application will be rejected.

TRADITIONAL IRA INSTRUCTIONS

To establish a traditional IRA account, please tell us how you will be funding the account.

A. By asset transfer from an existing traditional IRA.

To transfer assets to William Blair from a traditional IRA held by another custodian, choose the option below that describes your transfer and complete the enclosed Asset Transfer Form. William Blair will contact your current custodian to arrange the transfer.

- Asset transfer from an existing direct rollover traditional IRA. (Choose this funding option if your current traditional IRA contains only assets previously rolled over from an employer-sponsored retirement plan.)
- Asset transfer from an existing traditional IRA. (Choose this funding option if your current traditional IRA contains either all personal contributions, or a combination of personal contributions and assets previously rolled over from an employer-sponsored retirement plan.)

B. By check. (Please make check payable to William Blair.)

- Annual contribution. For tax year _____.
- Rollover from a previously held traditional IRA. (Applicable only if you have possession of the traditional IRA assets you had held at another institution. Please remember, you must deposit the full value of your assets — including any taxes that were withheld — within 60 days for the rollover to remain tax deferred.)

Please remember, you must deposit the full value of your assets — including any taxes that were withheld — within 60 days for the rollover to remain tax deferred.)

INHERITED IRA INSTRUCTIONS

The IRA you are establishing will hold inherited assets (assets that you are receiving as a beneficiary of a deceased IRA owner or plan participant).

To establish a Roth IRA account, please tell us how you will be funding the account.

A. I am transferring inherited/beneficiary assets from another IRA or an employer plan account in accordance with applicable tax law requirements, and I am the (check one box):

- surviving spouse or
- a non-spousal beneficiary (for non-spousal beneficiary, account will be registered as a decedent (DCD) IRA).

B. Assets from the IRA are coming from (check one):

- another IRA
- an employer retirement plan. Note: If you are the beneficiary of a deceased participant in an employer qualified plan, 403(b) arrangement or eligible governmental 457 plan, you may establish an IRA and direct the transfer of the deceased participant's account to your IRA by a direct rollover.

The required minimum distribution rules will apply to the amount in your IRA. See the Disclosure Statement for additional information and consult a tax advisor for assistance, if needed. You may need to commence withdrawals in order to satisfy the required minimum distribution rules by submitting appropriate withdrawal instructions.

C. If a surviving spouse, register my IRA as an

- inherited (DCD) IRA
- in my name (not an inherited IRA) Please note: There are tax implications to this choice — please consult a tax advisor if needed.

Date of prior participant's/account owner's death: _____

THE USA PATRIOT ACT

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal Law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth and other information that will allow us to identify you. You may also be asked to show other identifying documentation.

Bolded fields must be completed and will be verified as required by the Patriot Act. If bolded fields are not completed, this application will be returned.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Please complete this form to authorize William Blair Funds to initiate an asset transfer of your existing IRA from another financial institution.

- If you are opening a new IRA account at William Blair, you must also complete and sign a William Blair IRA application.
- Transfers between traditional IRAs and Roth IRAs are not permissible.
- A separate IRA Transfer Form must be completed for each institution from which assets are being transferred.
- If you will reach age 70-1/2 during this calendar year, or are older, you will be required to take a minimum distribution from your retirement plan. You can either take that distribution before transferring the assets to us, or leave the amount of the required minimum distribution (RMD) in the existing retirement plan and withdraw it prior to the distribution deadline, generally December 31.
- Asset transfers are completed in an average of three to four weeks from the date William Blair receives your request.

4. IRA TRANSFER INSTRUCTIONS

Please choose the scenario below that best describes your type of transfer. You may choose only one type: A, B, C, or D.

- A. Asset transfer from a traditional IRA held by another custodian to a William Blair traditional IRA. (Check only one, and then proceed to Section 5.)
- I am opening a new William Blair traditional IRA. (Be sure to complete an IRA account application.)
- Invest these assets in my established William Blair traditional IRA.
- B. Asset transfer from a direct rollover IRA held by another custodian to a William Blair direct rollover IRA. (Choose one of the options directly below if your assets are currently invested in a traditional IRA at another institution but had been invested previously in an employer sponsored retirement plan – for example, a 401(k) – then proceed to Section 5.)
- I am opening a new William Blair direct rollover IRA. (Complete an IRA account application.)
- Invest these assets in my established William Blair direct rollover IRA. This choice may involve the commingling of direct rollover assets from different retirement plans, which may affect your ability to complete a future direct rollover of these assets into a new employer-sponsored retirement plan.
- C. Asset transfer from a Roth IRA held by another custodian to a William Blair Roth IRA. (Check only one and proceed to Section 5.)
- I am opening a new William Blair ROTH IRA. (Be sure to complete an IRA account application.)
- Invest these assets in my established William Blair ROTH IRA account.
- D. Asset transfer from an Inherited IRA as the beneficiary of a deceased:
- IRA owner or participant in an employer qualified plan or 403(b) arrangement.
- Eligible governmental 457 plan.

6. SIGNATURE REQUIRED

Please check with your current IRA custodian regarding the need for a signature guarantee before they will release the assets. If a signature guarantee is required and one is not provided, your new IRA account set-up will be delayed. IMPORTANT: If a signature guarantee is required, please wait to sign this form until you are in the presence of the authorized officer.

I hereby agree to the terms and conditions set forth in this IRA Asset Transfer Form and acknowledge having established a William Blair IRA through execution of a William Blair IRA application.

By execution of this application, the investor represents and warrants that (i) he has the full right, power and authority to make the investment applied for and (ii) he is a natural person of legal age in his state of residence and that all information on this application is true and correct. The investor certifies that the taxpayer identification number and tax status set forth in the application is correct. The person or persons, if any, signing on behalf of the investor represent and warrant that they are duly authorized to sign this application and purchase or redeem shares of the Fund on behalf of the investor. The person named in the registration must sign below.

By signing this form, I certify that: I have reviewed the current Fund prospectus(es) and agree to be bound by its terms. I have full authority and legal capacity to purchase Fund shares, and establish and use regular privileges.

I hereby adopt the William Blair Funds Retirement Custodial Agreement that is incorporated herein by reference and acknowledge having received and read it. I further acknowledge having received and read the William Blair Disclosure Statement and the prospectus(es) for the Fund(s) into which I am transferring my IRA for each William Blair Fund elected under this Agreement.

If I am a U.S. citizen or resident alien, I certify under penalties of perjury that the number shown in Section 1 is my correct taxpayer identification number and that I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (this includes a U.S. resident alien).

If I am a nonresident alien, I understand that I am required to complete the appropriate Form W 8 to certify my foreign status. I understand that, if I am a nonresident alien, I am not under penalties of perjury for certifying to the above information.

Traditional Individual Retirement Custodial Account

(Under section 408(a) of the Internal Revenue Code)

Form 5305-A

(Rev. April 2017)

Department of the Treasury

Internal Revenue Service

DO NOT File With the Internal Revenue Service

Introduction

The Depositor whose name appears on the Application is establishing a traditional individual retirement account under section 408(a) to provide for his or her retirement and for the support of his or her beneficiaries after death.

The custodian has given the depositor the disclosure statement required by Regulations section 1.408.6.

The depositor has assigned the Custodial Account the sum indicated on the Application in cash.

The depositor and the custodian make the following agreement:

ARTICLE I

Except in the case of a rollover contribution described in section 402(c), 403(a)(4), 403(b)(8), 408(d)(3), or 457(e)(16), an employer contribution to a simplified employee pension plan as described in section 408(k), or a recharacterized contribution described in section 408A(d)(6), the custodian will accept only cash contributions up to $5,500 per year for 2013 through 2017. For individuals who have reached the age of 50 by the end of the year, the contribution limit is increased to $6,500 per year for 2013 through 2017. For years after 2017, these limits will be increased to reflect a cost-of-living adjustment, if any.

ARTICLE II

The depositor's interest in the balance in the custodial account is nonforfeitable.

ARTICLE III

1. No part of the custodial account funds may be invested in life insurance contracts, nor may the assets of the custodial account be commingled with other property except in a common trust fund or common investment fund (within the meaning of section 408(a)(5)).
2. No part of the custodial account funds may be invested in collectibles (within the meaning of section 408(m)) except as otherwise permitted by section 408(m)(3), which provides an exception for certain gold, silver, and platinum coins, coins issued under the laws of any state, and certain bullion.

ARTICLE IV

1. Notwithstanding any provision of this agreement to the contrary, the distribution of the depositor's interest in the custodial account shall be made in accordance with the following requirements and shall otherwise comply with section 408(a)(6) and the regulations thereunder, the provisions of which are herein incorporated by reference.
2. The depositor's entire interest in the custodial account must be, or begin to be, distributed not later than the depositor's required beginning date, April 1 following the calendar year in which the depositor reaches age 70½. By that date, the depositor may elect, in a manner acceptable to the custodian, to have the balance in the custodial account distributed in:
 - (a) A single sum or
 - (b) Payments over a period not longer than the life of the depositor or the joint lives of the depositor and his or her designated beneficiary.
3. If the depositor dies before his or her entire interest is distributed to him or her, the remaining interest will be distributed as follows:
 - (a) if the depositor dies on or after the required beginning date and:
 - (i) the designated beneficiary is the depositor's surviving spouse, the remaining interest will be distributed over the surviving spouse's life expectancy as determined each year until such spouse's death, or over the period in paragraph (a)(iii) below

if longer. Any interest remaining after the spouse's death will be distributed over such spouse's remaining life expectancy as determined in the year of the spouse's death and reduced by 1 for each subsequent year, or, if distributions are being made over the period in paragraph (a)(iii) below, over such period.

- (ii) The designated beneficiary is not the depositor's surviving spouse, the remaining interest will be distributed over the beneficiary's remaining life expectancy as determined in the year following the death of the depositor and reduced by 1 for each subsequent year, or over the period in paragraph (a)(iii) below if longer.
 - (iii) There is no designated beneficiary, the remaining interest will be distributed over the remaining life expectancy of the depositor as determined in the year of the depositor's death and reduced by 1 for each subsequent year
- (b) If the depositor dies before the required beginning date, the remaining interest will be distributed in accordance with paragraph (i) below or, if elected or there is no designated beneficiary, in accordance with paragraph (ii) below:
 - (i) The remaining interest will be distributed in accordance with paragraphs (a)(i) and (a)(ii) above (but not over the period in paragraph (a)(iii), even if longer), starting by the end of the calendar year following the year of the depositor's death. If, however, the designated beneficiary is the depositor's surviving spouse, then this distribution is not required to begin before the end of the calendar year in which the depositor would have reached age 70½. But, in such case, if the depositor's surviving spouse dies before distributions are required to begin, then the remaining interest will be distributed in accordance with paragraph (a)(ii) above (but not over the period in paragraph (a)(iii), even if longer), over such spouse's designated beneficiary's life expectancy, or in accordance with paragraph (ii) below if there is no such designated beneficiary.
 - (ii) The remaining interest will be distributed by the end of the calendar year containing the fifth anniversary of the depositor's death.
4. If the depositor dies before his or her entire interest has been distributed and if the designated beneficiary is not the depositor's surviving spouse, no additional contributions may be accepted in the account.
 5. The minimum amount that must be distributed each year, beginning with the year containing the depositor's required beginning date, is known as the "required minimum distribution" and is determined as follows:
 - (a) The required minimum distribution under paragraph 2(b) for any year, beginning with the year the depositor reaches age 70½, is the depositor's account value at the close of business on December 31 of the preceding year divided by the distribution period in the uniform lifetime table in Regulations section 1.401(a)(9)-9. However, if the depositor's designated beneficiary is his or her surviving spouse, the required minimum distribution for a year shall not be more than the depositor's account value at the close of business on December 31 of the preceding year divided by the number in the joint and last survivor table in Regulations section 1.401(a)(9)-9. The required minimum distribution for a year under this paragraph (a) is determined using the depositor's (or, if applicable, the depositor and spouse's) attained age (or ages) in the year.
 - (b) The required minimum distribution under paragraphs 3(a) and 3(b)(i) for a year, beginning with the year following the year of the depositor's death (or the year the depositor would have reached age 70½, if applicable under paragraph 3(b)(i)) is the account value at the close of business on December 31 of the preceding year divided by the life expectancy (in the single life table in Regulations section 1.401(a)(9)-9) of the individual specified in such paragraphs 3(a) and 3(b)(i).
 - (c) The required minimum distribution for the year the depositor reaches age 70½ can be made as late as April 1 of the following year. The required minimum distribution for any other year must be made by the end of such year.

6. The owner of two or more traditional IRAs may satisfy the minimum distribution requirements described above by taking from one traditional IRA the amount required to satisfy the requirement for another in accordance with the regulations under section 408(a)(6).

ARTICLE V

1. The depositor agrees to provide the custodian with all information necessary to prepare any reports required by section 408(i) and Regulations sections 1.408-5 and 1.408-6.
2. The custodian agrees to submit to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and depositor the reports prescribed by the IRS.

ARTICLE VI

Notwithstanding any other articles which may be added or incorporated, the provisions of Articles I through III and this sentence will be controlling. Any additional articles inconsistent with section 408(a) and the related regulations will be invalid.

ARTICLE VII

This agreement will be amended as necessary to comply with the provisions of the Code and the related regulations. Other amendments may be made with the consent of the persons whose signatures appear on the Application.

ARTICLE VIII

Article VIII may be used for any additional provisions. If no other provisions will be added, draw a line through this space. If provisions are added, they must comply with applicable requirements of state law and the Internal Revenue Code.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

Form 5305-A is a model custodial account agreement that meets the requirements of section 408(a). However, only Articles I through VII have been reviewed by the IRS. A traditional individual retirement account (traditional IRA) is established after the form is fully executed by both the individual (depositor) and the custodian. To make a regular contribution to a traditional IRA for a year, the IRA must be established no later than the due date of the individual's income tax return for the tax year (excluding extensions). This account must be created in the United States for the exclusive benefit of the depositor and his or her beneficiaries.

Do not file Form 5305-A with the IRS. Instead, keep it with your records.

For more information on IRAs, including the required disclosures the custodian must give the depositor, see Pub. 590, Contributions to Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), and Pub. 590-B, Distributions from Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs).

Custodian. The custodian must be a bank or savings and loan association, as defined in section 408(h), or any person who has the approval of the IRS to act as custodian.

Depositor. The depositor is the person who establishes the custodial account.

Traditional IRA for Nonworking Spouse

Form 5305-A may be used to establish the IRA custodial account for a nonworking spouse.

Contributions to an IRA custodial account for a nonworking spouse must be made to a separate IRA custodial account established by the nonworking spouse.

Specific Instructions

Article IV. Distributions made under this article may be made in a single sum, periodic payment, or a combination of both. The distribution option should be reviewed in the year the depositor reaches age 70½ to ensure that the requirements of section 408(a) (6) have been met.

Article VIII. Article VIII and any that follow it may incorporate additional provisions that are agreed to by the depositor and custodian to complete the agreement. They may include, for example, definitions, investment powers, voting rights, exculpatory provisions, amendment and termination, removal of the custodian, custodian's fees, state law requirements, beginning date of distributions, accepting only cash, treatment of excess contributions, prohibited transactions with the depositor, etc. Attach additional pages if necessary.

Roth Individual Retirement Custodial Account

(Under section 408(a) of the Internal Revenue Code)

Form 5305-RA

(Rev. April 2017)

Department of the Treasury

Internal Revenue Service

DO NOT File With the Internal Revenue Service

Introduction

The Depositor whose name appears on the Application is establishing a traditional individual retirement account under section 408(a) to provide for his or her retirement and for the support of his or her beneficiaries after death.

The custodian has given the depositor the disclosure statement required by Regulations section 1.408.6.

The depositor has assigned the Custodial Account the sum indicated on the Application in cash.

The depositor and the custodian make the following agreement:

ARTICLE I

Except in the case of a qualified rollover contribution described in section 408A(e) or a recharacterized contribution described in section 408A(d)(6), the custodian will accept only cash contributions up to $5,500 per year for 2013 through 2017. For individuals who have reached the age of 50 by the end of the year, the contribution limit is increased to $6,500 per year for 2013 through 2017. For years after 2017, these limits will be increased to reflect a cost-of-living adjustment, if any.

ARTICLE II

1. The annual contribution limit described in Article I is gradually reduced to $0 for higher income levels. For a grantor who is single or treated as single, the annual contribution is phased out between adjusted gross income (AGI) of $118,000 and $133,000; for a married grantor filing jointly, between AGI of $186,000 and $196,000; and for a married grantor filing separately, between AGI of $0 and $10,000. These phase-out ranges are for 2017. For years after 2017, the phase-out ranges, except for the $0 to $10,000 range, will be increased to reflect a cost-of-living adjustment, if any. Adjusted gross income is defined in section 408A(c)(3).
2. In the case of a joint return, the AGI limits in the preceding paragraph apply to the combined AGI of the depositor and his or her spouse.

ARTICLE III

The depositor's interest in the balance in the custodial account is nonforfeitable.

ARTICLE IV

1. No part of the custodial account funds may be invested in life insurance contracts, nor may the assets of the custodial account be commingled with other property except in a common trust fund or common investment fund (within the meaning of section 408(a)(5)).
2. No part of the custodial account funds may be invested in collectibles (within the meaning of section 408(m)) except as otherwise permitted by section 408(m)(3), which provides an exception for certain gold, silver, and platinum coins, coins issued under the laws of any state, and certain bullion.

ARTICLE V

1. If the depositor dies before his or her entire interest is distributed to him or her and the depositor's surviving spouse is not the designated beneficiary, the remaining interest will be distributed in accordance with paragraph (a) below or, if elected or there is no designated beneficiary, in accordance with paragraph (b) below.
 - (a) The remaining interest will be distributed, starting by the end of the calendar year following the year of the depositor's death, over the designated beneficiary's remaining life expectancy as determined in the year following the death of the depositor.
 - (b) The remaining interest will be distributed by the end of the calendar year containing the fifth anniversary of the depositor's death.

2. The minimum amount that must be distributed each year under paragraph 1(a) above is the account value at the close of business on December 31 of the preceding year divided by the life expectancy (in the single life table in Regulations section 1.401(a)(9)-9) of the designated beneficiary using the attained age of the beneficiary in the year following the year of the depositor's death and subtracting 1 from the divisor for each subsequent year.
3. If the depositor's surviving spouse is the designated beneficiary, such spouse will then be treated as the depositor.

ARTICLE VI

1. The depositor agrees to provide the custodian with all information necessary to prepare any reports required by sections 408(i) and 408A(d)(3)(E), Regulations sections 1.408-5 and 1.408-6, or other guidance published by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS).
2. The custodian agrees to submit to the IRS and depositor the reports prescribed by the IRS.

ARTICLE VII

Notwithstanding any other articles which may be added or incorporated, the provisions of Articles I through IV and this sentence will be controlling. Any additional articles inconsistent with section 408A, the related regulations, and other published guidance will be invalid.

ARTICLE VIII

This agreement will be amended as necessary to comply with the provisions of the Code, the related regulations, and other published guidance. Other amendments may be made with the consent of the persons whose signatures appear below.

ARTICLE IX

Article IX may be used for any additional provisions. If no other provisions will be added, draw a line through this space. If provisions are added, they must comply with applicable requirements of state law and the Internal Revenue Code and may not imply that they have been reviewed or pre-approved by the IRS.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

Form 5305-RA is a model custodial account agreement that meets the requirements of section 408A. However, only Articles I through VIII have been reviewed by the IRS. A Roth individual retirement account (Roth IRA) is established after the form is fully executed by both the individual (depositor) and the custodian. This account must be created in the United States for the exclusive benefit of the depositor and his or her beneficiaries.

Do not file Form 5305-RA with the IRS. Instead, keep it with your records. Unlike contributions to traditional individual retirement arrangements, contributions to a Roth IRA are not deductible from the depositor's gross income; and distributions after 5 years that are made when the depositor is 59½ years of age or older or on account of death, disability, or the purchase of a home by a first-time homebuyer (limited to $10,000), are not includible in gross to $10,000), are not includible in gross income. For more information on Roth IRAs, including the required disclosures the custodian must give the depositor, see Pub. 590, Contributions to Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), and Pub. 590-B, Distributions from Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs).

Definitions

Custodian. The custodian must be a bank or savings and loan association, as defined in section 408(n), or any person who has the approval of the IRS to act as custodian.

Depositor. The depositor is the person who establishes the custodial account.

Specific Instructions

Article I. The depositor may be subject to a 6% tax on excess contributions if (1) contributions to other individual retirement arrangements of the depositor have been made for the same tax year, (2) the depositor's adjusted gross income exceeds the applicable limits in Article II for the tax year, or (3) the depositor's and spouse's compensation is less than the amount contributed by or on behalf of them for the tax year.

Article V. This article describes how distributions will be made from the Roth IRA after the depositor's death. Elections made pursuant to this article should be reviewed periodically to ensure they correspond to the depositor's intent. Under paragraph 3 of Article V, the depositor's spouse is treated as the owner of the Roth IRA upon the death of the depositor, rather than as the beneficiary. If the spouse is to be treated as the beneficiary, and not the owner, an overriding provision should be added to Article IX.

Article IX. Article IX and any that follow it may incorporate additional provisions that are agreed to by the depositor and custodian to complete the agreement. They may include, for example, definitions, investment powers, voting rights, exculpatory provisions, amendment and termination, removal of the custodian, custodian's fees, state law requirements, beginning date of distributions, accepting only cash, treatment of excess contributions, prohibited transactions with the depositor, etc. Attach additional pages if necessary.
